Headline:
Bright start but increasing cloud brings outbreaks of rain.

Today:
A bright start with any patchy fog soon clearing but cloud thickening this morning brining patchy light rain northeast around the middle of the day. More persistent and occasionally heavy rain spreads east towards dusk. Strengthening southerly winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with occasionally heavy rain this evening. Drier for a time around midnight but further rain spreads east later in the night. Occasionally strong southerly then southwesterly winds. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Friday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain, these turning lighter and patchier through the day. Some brighter spells developing over southern counties during the afternoon as the occasionally strong winds turn northwesterly. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry and bright Saturday with sunny spells. Becoming cloudier through Sunday with rain later, the rain clearing overnight to leave Monday dry with sunny spells. Mainly light winds throughout.
